

Pier Carlo Padoan, who was Italian Minister of Economy and Finance (2014-2018) and Member of the Chamber of Deputies of the Italian Republic (2018-2020), is Chairman of UniCredit since April 2021. He has been Chief Economist and Deputy Secretary General at OECD and Executive Director at IMF.

Pier Carlo Padoan is Full Professor of Economics retired at La Sapienza University of Rome.

He also covers the following positions:

- Vice President of the Istituto Affari Internazionali (IAI)
- Board member of the Institute of International Finance (IIF)
- Member of the Board of Directors and Executive Committee of the Associazione Banche Italiana (ABI)
- Chairman of the High Level Group on Financing Sustainability Transition.