

Giampaolo Galli

- Director of the Observatory on Public Accounts and professor in charge of Economic Policy at the Catholic University of the Sacred Heart (Rome).
- Member of the Scientific Committee of the Einaudi Center (Turin)

Born in Milan, he graduated cum laude in Economics from Bocconi University in 1975. In 1980 he obtained a Ph.D. in Economics from MIT (Cambridge, Ma.), where he carried out research on risk theory and on financial systems with Robert Solow and Franco Modigliani.

- 1980 - 1991. Bank of Italy, first in the Monetary Market office with Tommaso Padoa-Schioppa, then in the Econometric Research office with Ignazio Visco.
- 1991-1995. Bank of Italy, head of the International Department. He represented the Bank of Italy at various international institutions, including the OECD Economic Policy Committee, the G-10 and the Monetary Committee of the European Union; depositary for Italy of the so-called 'Red Code' of the European Monetary System.
- March 1995- February 2003. Chief Economist of Confindustria.
- March 2003-January 2009. General Manager of the National Association of Insurance Companies (ANIA).
- February 2009-July 2012. Director General of Confindustria.
- March 2013-March 2018. Deputy, elected as an independent on the lists of the Democratic Party in the Milan Center constituency; member of the Budget Commission.

- Between 1995 and 2003 he was: member of the National Institute of Economic Research (London); Advisor to the Economic and Monetary Affairs Committee of the European Parliament; member of the ECB Monitor Frankfurt; member of the team of economic consultants of the President of the European Commission (in the period in which the President was Romano Prodi).
- 1995 – 2012. Director of the CNEL, as head of the Confindustria delegation.
- 2009 – 2013. Member of the BoD of Sole 24 Ore, of the Mai Foundation and of Cerved Group, where he was Chairman of the Control and Risk Committee.
- October 2012- February 2013. Member of the BoD of Fondiaria-Sai Spa, elected as independent in the minority list indicated by Assogestioni; Chairman of the Remuneration Committee and Member of the Related Party Transactions Committee.
- 1980-2021. At various times, professor of Econometrics, Monetary Policy, Economic Policy and Insurance Economics in the following locations: Bocconi University (Milan), La Sapienza University (Rome), Luiss Guido Carli (Rome), Catholic University (Rome).

Author of numerous articles in scientific journals and newspapers indicated in the personal blog: www.giampaologalli.it