

Paolo Guerrieri

Visiting Professor at the Paris School of International Affairs, Sciences Po (Paris).

He was Senator of the Republic in the XVII legislature and Professor of political economy at Sapienza, University of Rome.

He is President of the Scientific Council of the Italian Economic Review, Head of the Economic Policy Observatory of the AREL, President of the Scientific Committee of the CER, Scientific Advisor of the IAI.

He has worked as a consultant for various international institutions and organizations, including the World Bank, the European Commission, the OECD, the ECLAC.

He has been Visiting Professor at the University of San Diego, Business School, at the University of California, Berkeley, at ULB (Belgium), at the College of Bruges and Natolin (Brussels and Warszawa), Esade Business School, Barcelona.

He is author of numerous volumes and articles on the subject of international economy, European economic integration, technological change. Among his most recent publications are:

Partita a Tre. Dove va l'Economia mondiale Il Mulino, Bologna, 2021;

L'economia europea tra crisi e rilancio, (with P.C. Padoan), Il Mulino, Bologna, 2020;

Inclusione, Produttività e Crescita. Un'Agenda per l'Italia, (editor), Il Mulino, Bologna, 2019