

Elisa Zambito Marsala

Elisa Zambito Marsala, in the Intesa Sanpaolo Group since 2002, has held various managerial roles in the areas of Strategic Planning, Innovation, Organization and Training.

CEO of Intesa San Paolo Formazione since July 2022, she was Director of the Department of Social Enhancement and Relations with Universities, managing the Group's institutional relations with Italy's social operators and with Schools and Universities, as well as formulating the Group's social responsibility objectives and developing initiatives with social impact.

She is currently Head of Education Ecosystem and Global Value Programs, with the aim of managing institutional relations and initiatives with Schools and Universities and, at a national and international level, launching Programs associated with the main transformative trends, with high impact for society (e.g. Blue Economy, Space Economy, Life Science, Energy Transition, Silver Economy, Demographics Crisis, Nutrition, etc.).