

Gloria Bartoli

Gloria Bartoli is co-founder and secretary general of the Observatory on Productivity and Wellbeing. She is Senior Fellow of the Fondazione Tor Vergata. She has taught International Macroeconomics and Public Management at Luiss and has been a lecturer at the School of National Administration (SNA) on European Economic Policy and Governance. She has been Member of the Council of Experts at the Ministry of Economy and Finance of Italy. She is Member of the Bureau managing the WP1/EPC of the OECD, Member of the OECD Steering Group on digital transformation; Sponsor and member of the Global Productivity Forum at the OECD; Member of the Digitalisation Steering Group OECD/G20.

She has worked for 18 years at the IMF, World Bank, WTO and OECD and is co-Founder of the Integrated Framework for trade development, today Aid for Trade Initiative at WTO.

Gloria Bartoli was an advisor to public institutions and private companies: Italian Prime Minister's Office, ICE (foreign trade agency), SACE (export insurance agency), SIP/Telecom. She contributed to the preparation of the G7 meeting in 1997 for the World Bank and for the Italian Presidency for the G7 meeting in 2001. She has published several books and articles.