

Marcella Panucci

Marcella Panucci is an Advisor to the Minister of University and Research, a board member of Banca Monte dei Paschi di Siena and Toscana Aeroporti, a Supervisory Board member of the Human Technopole Foundation, and a professor of Law and Public Regulation of the Economy as well as European Industrial Policy at Luiss-Guido Carli, where she graduated with honors in Law.

She continued her studies at University College London and earned a PhD in Competition Law from the University of Perugia.

For eight years, she served as Director General of Confindustria. She has also held roles as Head of the Technical Secretariat at the Ministry of Justice, Advisor to the Minister of European Affairs, Chief of Staff to the Minister of Public Administration, and Chief of Staff to the Minister of University and Research. Additionally, she has been a member of the Corporate Governance Committee of Borsa Italiana, a board member of Il Sole 24 Ore and Banca Widiba, a councilor at CNEL, a member of the EU Expert Group on Public Administration and Governance, and a member of the Management Committee of the National School of Administration.