

Call for Scholarships for the Emuna Program

The Luiss Research Center for European Analysis and Policy (LEAP) is opening a call for the following opportunity:

2 scholarships to attend the Emuna program.

This lifelong learning and research program aims, through attendance at a series of seminars during the academic year and participation in collective and individual projects, to build a foundation of fundamental skills from a multidisciplinary perspective and to develop a network of knowledge among people of different religious or humanistic-secular beliefs, useful for interfaith and intercultural dialogue. The program for the last edition (2025) and the next (2026) can be found at the following link: <https://leap.luiss.it/emuna/>.

Eligibility Criteria

Applications are open to undergraduate, graduate, postgraduate, doctoral students, postdocs, and teaching and non-teaching staff, preferably, but not exclusively, from Luiss Guido Carli.

Application Requirements and Procedures

The candidate must submit:

- A detailed academic and professional curriculum vitae (CV);
- A cover letter;
- A copy of a valid ID.

Candidates are also required, by signing a self-declaration form online, to guarantee that the documentation submitted corresponds to the original and does not infringe the rights of third parties. Interested candidates are asked to send their application to the following email address: leap@luiss.it

Incomplete or late applications will not be considered. LEAP declines all responsibility for failure to receive applications due to causes attributable to third parties, unforeseeable circumstances, or force majeure.

Application deadline: July 30, 2026

Selection Procedures

Candidates considered suitable based on their CV and cover letter will be invited to an online interview.

The selected candidate will be notified via the email address provided in the application. A reserve list will be considered. The selected candidate must confirm their formal acceptance and submit other required documents within 5 working days of receiving notification. Otherwise, the Evaluation Committee will select the first candidate on the reserve list.
